A motion to reelect Trustee James Pribyl as Chair, Trustee Kara Buckley as Vice Chair, President Baca as Secretary, and VP Higgins as Treasurer of the Western Board of Trustees was made by Trustee Gutierrez and seconded by Trustee Wiens. The motion carried.

VII. Discussion Topics

A. Alternative Funding Sources and Unique Programs

The administrative team of Laura Kerr, Director of Sponsored Programs and Grants, Greg Hinze, Deputy Director of Athletics, Shelley Jansen, Director of Center for Learning and Innovation, and Marlo Frazier, Executive Director of Graduate Studies were introduced by Provost Young who described how each of the programs contributed to the strategic plan and to the Education and General fund. Each staff member provided an overview of their program, how the program supported the strategic plan, and provided both indirect and direct value to the institution and broader Gunnison Community.

B. Enrollment Report

Vice President Taylor provided a written report on the current status of admitted and deposited students. Her oral presentation focused on the deposit gaps for first-generation, underrepresented minority, and Colorado resident students. She illustrated the impact of the FAFSA delays on deposits for those populations and the strategies in place to focus on narrowing the gaps.

C. Elevate Western Campaign and Advancement Update

VP LaPlante Mike reported on Advancement activities since the last meeting including our Career Services team hosting a spring career fair (35 companies), Alumni Relations April launch of a new online platform for the Westerner Alumni Magazine, and the successful execution of the Foundation’s 4th annual Mountaineer Gala, which set a record by raising over $200,000. The Foundation team continued its operational improvements by establishing a new scholarship policy as well. The Elevate
Western Campaign continues to make strides towards it’s $80M goal by eclipsing the $67M mark (84% to goal).

VIII. Written reports

A. Campus Updates

IX. Oral Reports

A. President

President Baca shared that Western’s authority to offer an Associate of General Studies (AGS) degree per the Colorado Re-Engaged (CORE) initiative was approved by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), allowing Western students who stopped out and completed at least 70 hours to earn an AGS degree as early as this fall. The Geosciences Graduate Certificate was also approved by the HLC. Western will host the CU Board of Regents and the Colorado Commission on Higher Education over the summer. He provided updates on the Masonic Lodge, and reported that a taskforce will be launched to look at programmatic opportunities.

B. Board Chair

Chair Pribyl thanked Student Trustee Engleman for her contributions to the Board, and for her representation of the Student Government Association (SGA).

C. Student Trustee

Student Trustee Engleman introduced Jazz Tanner as the incoming Student Trustee. She also referenced the officers elected in the SGA. A significant change to the constitution is that a Grad Student Advisor will be added to the SGA, so representation across campus via shared governance will be ensured. She also reported on the results of a survey that was sent to gather feedback from students on the SGA. Students are interested in events that represent a diversity of perspectives, promote community involvement, and would like these to be better promoted/advertised. Students also would like to see how best to balance all areas of their experience, including mental health. Students reported that the SGA supports diverse groups and a feeling of inclusion.

D. Faculty Trustee

Faculty Trustee Mason thanked the Board for their trust in the shared governance process. He reported on end-of-year activities, including finals and grade submissions. More than 40 summer courses are being offered, and the supplemental income faculty will receive from these is essential for meeting cost-of-living demands.

E. Faculty Senate Chair

Faculty Senate Chair Magee! reported that shared governance elections are complete, with most service roles filled. The majority of Senate seats are also filled. A new taskforce working on an improved faculty evaluation system has been formed. Faculty Senate has approved new Leave Policies, aligning these with state and federal laws, and these changes appear to be faculty- and staff-centric. Bylaws regarding the restructuring of the General Education committee have also been passed. Chair Magee! also reported on sustainability efforts, and made recommendations for Western to prioritize this work in order to reach the goal of meeting carbon neutrality by 2050. He recommended achieving 40% reduction by 2028, at the end of the Strategic Plan.
F. Administrative Leadership Council Chair

Paul Giberson presented on behalf of ALC Chair, Craig Beebe. He reported on the ALC’s activities, including the Distinguished Mountaineer Awards, where exceptional staff and faculty are acknowledged, including teams. Years of service are also acknowledged at this event. The Staff Senate Working Group expanded from only ALC members to include staff from other departments representing both administrative professionals and state classified staff. The group is currently drafting a constitution and bylaws to continue exploring viability of a Staff Senate at Western. The Employee Enhancement Experience (E3) launched their monthly newsletter. The newsletter includes local business specials, provides reminders about employee benefits, introduces our newest employees, and highlights noteworthy events.

G. Athletic Director

Director Van Hee provided updates on athletic performances. He also shared data about the Student-Athlete Portal, which was requested during the February Board Meeting. Use of the portal in 2023-2024 has decreased, so retention is up for this student-athletes. The results of the Student-Athlete Survey have been shared with coaches and staff.

H. Attorney General/Legal Report

Assistant Attorney General Natalie Powell reported back to the Board on two inquiries from the Board’s March meeting. First, Ms. Powell reported that the CU Board of Regents is continuing discussion on banning permitted concealed carry firearms on campus, but had not made a decision. She also reported that pending Senate Bill 24-131, if passed, may prohibit concealed-carry on college and university campuses statewide. Second, Ms. Powell discussed SB 24-157 regarding changes to Colorado’s open meetings law, and that those changes do not appear to impact the Board. Lastly, Ms. Powell updated the Board that the Department of Education recently published its amendments to the Title IX regulations. Those regulations take effect August 1, 2024. The Attorney General’s Office will be working with Western to update our policies prior to August 1st.

I. Legislative Report

Kelli Kelty provided a recap of the 2024 legislative session, highlighting the higher education funding outcomes, including funding for the rural ask and the Crawford Hall renovation, as well as other pieces of legislation impacting Western.
